Streets Chartered Accountants and SPW Poppleton & Appleby in Strategic Alliance

Streets Chartered Accountants, a top 50 UK accountancy practice has formed a strategic alliance with the leading insolvency specialist SPW Poppleton & Appleby.

The alliance, which came into effect on 1 January 2012, has come from Streets' desire to be able to offer a dedicated corporate and personal recovery service.

Commenting on the alliance, Paul Tutin, Streets Chairman and Managing Partner said:

"Over recent years we have developed the practice significantly with the opening of new offices and strategic mergers with other firms. Following the tie up with SPW Poppleton & Appleby we will now be able to offer an insolvency and corporate recovery service with one of the country's top 20 Insolvency Practices.

The SPW Poppleton & Appleby insolvency team is led by senior partners Harold Sorsky and Daniel Platt, fellow partner Stella Davis and Associate Myles Jacobson, all of whom are qualified Insolvency Practitioners and appointment takers. They are supported by a highly experienced and dedicated support team of Administrators and Case Workers."

Harold Sorsky, SPW Poppleton & Appleby's Senior Partner, welcomes the new strategic partnership with Streets Chartered Accountants as an essential part of practice development.

"As a result, this will access an enlarged market by offering a nationwide service from Streets' 12 offices covering London, the South East, East Midlands and Yorkshire as well as our own offices in Central and North London. It will also give the new firm the ability to call upon the support skills of Streets Forensic and Taxation departments."

SPW Poppleton and Appleby became Streets SPW PLC with effect from 1 January 2012. Under its new name Streets SPW PLC, the dedicated corporate recovery team look forward to the year ahead, with the focus for business being to support clients with turnaround and corporate recovery work. The aim over the coming years is to develop a nationally acclaimed corporate recovery and licensed insolvency practice with full UK coverage.
